Introducing The Cutting Edge Table Games Conference Game Developers Forum! In the move to virtual, we realize that this type of environment is not conducive to the Best New Table Games Competition that traditionally takes place at our in-person event, but we know how important it is to get your game noticed! Therefore we are excited to offer the Cutting Edge Table Games Conference Game Developers Forum.

In this forum you will have the opportunity to provide a video up to 3 minutes long describing, detailing and showcasing your game. At the end of your video, the viewer will fill out a survey to provide feedback that you receive as part of the package! The Cutting Edge Table Games Conference Game Developers Forum will be available to all registered attendees to view and will be available through October of 2021!
